About Us...

Byte Back is a licensed nonprofit computer and job training center serving over 1000 unemployed and low-income adults per year. Our free and low-cost classes offer training from basic computer literacy skills to eight different computer certification programs leading to employment in growth industries paying a living wage with opportunities for advancement. Byte Back was recognized as one of five Finalists of the coveted Washington Post “Excellence in Non-profit Management” Award .

Event Description...

Panté Technology Corporation presents “It’s Never Too Late,” a black-tie gala fundraiser celebrating the efforts of Byte Back students to reinvent themselves, learn new skills, and find new opportunities through technology. It will take place at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel, ranked by Institutional Investor magazine as one of the top 100 hotels in the world. The Yvonne Jackson Trio (jazz and R&B) will entertain guests as they dine on Chinese and Italian fare, followed by dancing. An award ceremony will honor those individuals and businesses which have advanced the mission of Byte Back. Event also includes a Premiere-Select Silent Auction, including rare bottle of wine, a week in Martha’s Vineyard and Redskins tickets.
